SWJC Reaches Out to First Responders in Outlying Areas

Carrara Rehabilitation Center of Plano
Carrollton Regional Medical Center
Princeton Community Med Family Urgent Care
Prosper, Texas Health
Sinai Urgent Care - Murphy/East Plano

Ever hear of these hospitals and clinics? Don't feel bad; they are easy to overlook. But the COVID-19 pandemic has hit them, too. The exhausting schedules of doctors, nurses, fire fighters, police and other first responders have had a major impact on these sites, similar to the forces that have challenged Baylor, Presbyterian, Parkland and other major medical centers.

That is why SWJC Building Bridges – Feeding Heroes and Neighbors in Need has extended its humanitarian program to these locations, to assure that they are not overlooked.

All donations go directly to feeding people: $50 feeds 5, $100 feeds 10 and so on. SWJC covers all administrative costs. So far, over 2,700 meals have been delivered to: 1,318 medical, 169 fire, 758 police, 475 neighbors.

Donations may be made via credit card at www.swjc.org.
